Founding Board Development

2

“Much of the ultimate success of a charter school hinges on the board’s ability to govern effectively. In fact, it can be argued that no other single factor is more important to the health and sustainability of a charter school than its board.”

Marci Cornell-Feist

Management Organizations Provide...

18

Finance

- CFO
- Financial Management Personnel
- Management Organization Fiscal Health
- Financial Management System
- Beware of “sweep” contracts
- Grant proposal writing and management
- Fee should not exceed 15% of total operating budget

Key Questions

- Have any schools in the EMO/ESP/CMO network closed due to financial reasons?
- Are the business practices aligned with your founding board?
- How will start-up financing be paid back? How many charters in the network sustainable?
- What are the long-range strategic goals of the management company?
- What is the company’s track record for securing grant funds for network charter schools?
- How many charters in the network have cash reserves?

Curriculum

- If the management organization requires you use their curricular model, is it aligned with Georgia Standards? How do you know?
- Management organization academic achievement results – look for trends...
- Benchmark tool – is it a good predictor for GA mandated exams?
- Student information. Is the management organization responsible for purchasing the student information system?

Key Questions

- Does the management company have a good track record with the demographic you will be serving?
- Is the SIS compatible with Georgia's SLDS (Statewide Longitudinal Data System)? If not, who is responsible for paying to make the system compatible?
- Is the management company's approach to teaching and learning philosophically aligned?

Culture

- School-wide discipline
- Mission/philosophical alignment
- Standard operating procedures

Key Questions

- Is there a discipline model required? Does it ensure due process for all students?
- Is the charter school required to use services that establish school culture? How successful are such services at other charter schools?
- Does the management company provide a standard operating procedures manual? How can the school customize these procedures to ensure mission alignment?

Facilities

- Facility financing
- Market rates/value
- Debt management
- Maintenance and repairs
- Maintenance and facilities personnel

Key Questions

- Does the management company provide assistance with facilities financing? What about furnishings, fixtures and equipment?
- Does the company charge fair market rates?
- How many charters in the network own, or are under contract to purchase their facilities?

More to consider...

- Employees must be employees of the board
- Check references and results
- If the company is not currently operating in Georgia, why not?
- Review the history of EMO/CMOs in Georgia
- Have an attorney review your contract and assist with negotiations
- You will have to justify your selection
- Ask to see the annual report & strategic plan
