Overview

Georgia law requires an annual review of all charter school authorizers, to assess their "adherence to the principles and standards of charter school authorizing practices" approved by the State Board of Education (SBOE). This evaluation tool is based on the 15 standards of quality practices in the Georgia Principles and Standards for Charter School Authorizing approved in December 2021.

This evaluation instrument outlines the legally required annual review of each Georgia charter school authorizer. This document is written for evaluators who have deep experience in authorizing and for evaluators with relevant expertise but limited experience applying that expertise in the public charter school context.

In order to provide direction and clarity for evaluators and to make the results actionable for authorizers, this evaluation organizes the 15 Georgia standards into five (5) main categories. The categories are introduced using the following guiding questions:

- I. Authorizer Commitment & Capacity
 - a. Does the authorizer organize and retain a professional team with the subject matter expertise necessary to carry out the authorizer's obligations?
 - b. Does the authorizer manage financial resources to support charter schools and clearly communicate how funds are allocated to schools pursuant to Georgia law?

II. The Petition Process

- a. Does the authorizer provide appropriate guidance and assistance to petitioners applying to open a new school?
- b. Does the authorizer engage teams of qualified individuals to review petitions?
- c. Does the authorizer clearly communicate the competency and capacity required for petition approval and make decisions based solely on those criteria?

III. Performance Contracting

- a. Does the authorizer publish clear requirements to ensure schools can open on time?
- b. Do performance contracts between the authorizer and schools define each party's obligations, reinforce the high standards required for renewal in for academic, financial, and operational performance, and identify any services to be provided under separate agreement?
- c. Does the authorizer meet its contract obligations as established by Georgia law?

IV. Oversight and Evaluation

- a. Does the authorizer protect the public interest by holding schools accountable for governance, management, and stewardship of public funds?
- b. Does the authorizer give schools timely notice of deficiencies or contract violations, and provide them time for remediation, prior to taking further action?
- c. Does the authorizer uphold school autonomy in organizing, staffing, and delivering educational programs in pursuit of measurable outcomes for students?

V. Renewal and Termination

- a. Does the authorizer use a rigorous renewal process and clearly communicate criteria for renewal, non-renewal, or termination of contracts?
- b. Does the authorizer base renewal decisions primarily on objective measures of student achievement?

¹ 2019 Georgia Code Title 20 – Education Chapter 2 - Elementary and Secondary Education Article 31 - Charter Schools Act of 1998 §20-2-2063.3. Code of principles and standards for charter school authorizers.

c. Does the authorizer follow a closure protocol that enables orderly transitions for students and staff, and careful disposition of school funds and assets?

Each standard is graded in a completed evaluation rubric. One rubric is completed for each authorizer. The completed rubric rates the authorizer on each standard, includes any relevant evaluative comments, and provides an overall quality rating.

Ratings and Evaluation Criteria

The process for evaluating authorizer practices and rating each authorizer is described and illustrated in an example table below.

Evaluators rate authorizers on each of the 15 standards using 1-6 evaluation criteria chosen based on their importance to the Georgia authorizing landscape. In making their decisions, evaluators rely on the following types of evidence:

- Documentation provided by the authorizer,
- A debrief and/or observations of the authorizer in practice, and
- Other interactions with stakeholders, such as school surveys or focus groups.

The evaluation process is designed to allow evaluators to conduct their evaluation in a reasonable time frame, to limit interruption to the normal operations of the authorizer and the schools in the authorizer's portfolio. Thus, evaluators complete as much of the evaluation as possible by reviewing existing documents. Surveys and other stakeholder interactions are limited and built as much as possible around existing workstreams and convenings. Meeting with the authorizer and, if appropriate, observing the authorizer staff and board in action, provide evaluators context and help them answer remaining questions.

Using this comprehensive body of evidence and their professional judgment, evaluators determine a Yes/No designation based on whether the evidence indicates that the authorizer has demonstrated adherence to Georgia's Principles and Standards for Quality Authorizing. For some criteria, depending on the evidence provided, evaluators will be able to easily select a designation of Yes or No. For other criteria, evaluators will need to carefully weigh the evidence provided and use their expertise and professional judgment to choose the appropriate designation.

Some criteria will not be applicable to authorizers in the state of Georgia (such as Standard 5, Criteria 4). In these cases, evaluators should rate that criteria as "Yes" automatically.

Three examples are provided below, using the same standard, to illustrate how designations are made in light of the evidence available.

Category I. Authorizer Commitment & Capacity

Standard 1. Human Resources. The authorizer identifies appropriate personnel to carry out its authorizing obligations, including the point(s) of contact who will coordinate charter school support.

Evaluation Criteria	Documentation Review	School Survey	Site Visit	Authorizer Debrief	Met Criteria? (Y/N)
Taken together, staff have adequate experience in charter authorizing or other relevant experience (e.g., education accountability, school funding and finance, education law and legal compliance).

The authorizer provided staff bios and resumes that demonstrated diverse expertise and cumulative depth of experience in charter authorizing and operations. School surveys indicated satisfaction with the staff's ability to fulfill their authorizing function and support schools appropriately. The authorizer debrief confirmed the experience and capacity of the staff.

In this case, the evaluators can easily designate Yes for this criterion.

Evaluation Criteria	Documentation Review	School Survey	Site Visit	Authorizer Debrief	Met Criteria? (Y/N)
Taken together, staff have adequate experience in charter authorizing or other relevant experience (e.g., education accountability, school funding and finance, education law and legal compliance).	Submitted documentation aligns with the standard.	Schools rated the authorizer highly.	Staff demonstrated a wide range of relevant experience.	The authorizer clarified any misconceptions.	Yes

Example B

The authorizer did not provide current bios or resumes for all staff. The resumes provided were outdated and had only limited charter school or authorizing experience. It was not clear from the documentation how long each staff member had served on the authorizing team. School surveys reflected significant dissatisfaction with the staff. One school board member said, "it feels like we're constantly having to train the authorizing staff on their jobs and what charter schools are." The authorizer debrief did not allay any of the concerns manifested in the documentation review or school surveys.

In this case, the evaluators can easily designate No for this criterion.

Evaluation Criteria	Documentation Review	School Survey	Site Visit	Authorizer Debrief	Met Criteria? (Y/N)
Taken together, staff have adequate experience in charter authorizing or other relevant experience (e.g., education accountability, school funding and finance, education law and legal compliance).	Submitted documentation was incomplete and did not meet the standard.	Schools rated the authorizer poorly.	Staffers could not speak to office polices or procedures.	The debrief did not provide any additional evidence to meet the standard.	No

Example C

Current bios and resumes for all authorizing staff were submitted. The resumes showed deep education experience but limited charter school experience. School surveys were mixed regarding satisfaction with the staff's ability to fulfill their authorizing function and support schools appropriately. One respondent noted, "The authorizing office connects us to experts across the district to help us with specific needs like Federal Programs compliance." During the authorizer debrief, the staff explained how they work with experts across the district and showed an organization chart each authorizing team member uses to ensure regular communication with school district staff who support the charter schools.

In this case, the evaluators may recognize the shared allocation of resources that enables the authorizer to fulfill its functions. The evaluator can therefore designate Yes for this criterion.

Evaluation Criteria	Documentation Review	School Survey	Site Visit	Authorizer Debrief	Met Criteria? (Y/N)
Taken together, staff have adequate experience in charter authorizing or other relevant experience (e.g., education accountability, school funding and finance, education law and legal compliance).	Submitted documentation showed some relevant experience.	School satisfaction was mixed, but schools appreciate access to district experts for support.	Processes clearly outlined and staff were following them appropriately.	Staff explained how they rely on experts across the district to fulfill all functions.	Yes

Guiding Questions

These examples are intended to show how evaluators can, keeping some guiding questions in mind, rate authorizers on each criterion in consistent ways. Evaluators should use questions like these throughout the process:

- 1. Did the relevant documentation describe authorizing practices that are consistent with the evaluation criteria and quality authorizing standard?
- 2. Did the school survey responses support the authorizer's documented practices? In other words, is there a disparity between the authorizer's perception of how well it adheres to a standard and the perception of school board members or leaders regarding the same?
- 3. Did the authorizer's verbal commentary align with their documented processes and the relevant quality authorizing practice?
- 4. If the evaluators observed the authorizer in practice, did the authorizer's practices adhere to its stated procedures or policies?

The evaluation team must include details in the appropriate section of the rubric explaining the rationale behind each designation and note where there is misalignment between the standard, the authorizer's documentation, schools' responses, and authorizer commentary.

Rating the Standard

Every authorizer is assigned a rating on each of the 15 standards. The three ratings are:

- 1. Needs Improvement (NI),
- 2. Adequate (AD), or
- 3. Exemplary (EX).

The number of evaluation criteria met determines the authorizer's rating. Each standard has a different number of associated evaluation criteria. Thus, the number of criteria required to earn a particular rating varies from standard to standard as illustrated within the rubric (See Table A, above, as an example). However, an authorizer that met no criteria will always earn a Needs Improvement rating for the relevant standard. And an authorizer that met all criteria will earn an Exemplary rating for the relevant standard.²

Overall Rating

In addition to receiving a rating on each standard, every authorizer is assigned an overall rating of Needs Improvement (NI), Adequate (AD) or Exemplary (EX)³. The overall rating is determined by the number of NI, AD, and EX ratings the authorizer received across all 15 Georgia Standards for Quality Charter School Authorizing. This is outlined in Table B, below.

Districts in their first year of authorizing will receive a rating for each standard but will not receive an overall rating. Instead, they will be designated as a First Time Authorizer (FTA).⁴ This allows new authorizers to develop and improve their practices before being subject to the consequences related to receiving an overall rating of NI.

Table A. Overall Rating Scoring Table

OVERALL RATING (Across all 15 Standards)
Rating	Criteria
Needs Improvement (NI)	Earned a majority (8 or more) NI ratings across all standards
Adequate (AD)	Earned any combination of ratings across standards expect as designated for NI or E
Exemplary (EX)	Earned a majority (8 or more) E ratings and no NI ratings across all standards
First Time Authorizer (FTA)	Authorizer in its first year of authorizing

Per Georgia law § 20-2-2063.3, a charter school authorized by a local board of education that fails to meet the principles and standards of charter school authorizing on its annual evaluation for two consecutive years may petition to transfer its charter authorization to the SCSC. An overall rating of NI is the equivalent of failing to meet principles and standards of charter school authorizing. In any year an authorizer receives a NI rating, the SBOE may require the authorizer to submit a corrective action plan to remedies the areas of deficiencies identified in the evaluation process.

² The exception is, if only one evaluation criterion are associated with the given standard, then the authorizer will earn an Adequate rating.

³ The overall rating categories are established in SBOE Rule 160-4-9-.06 Charter Authorizers, Financing, Management, And Governance Training.

⁴ The overall rating category of First Time Authorizer is established in SBOE Rule 160-4-9-.06 Charter Authorizers, Financing, Management, And Governance Training.

Standard 2. Financial Resources. Pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 20-2-2068.1 and O.C.G.A. § 20-2-2089, the authorizer allocates the required financial resources to support charter schools, treats charter schools no less favorably than other local schools within the system unless otherwise provided by law, and provides transparency on the availability and allocation of charter school funding.

Advanced Criteria

To encourage the development of transformational authorizing practices, advanced criteria have been added to supplement the evaluation of the Georgia standards. These advanced practices are aligned with national best practices. As such, these standards will not receive a rating of Needs Improvement, Adequate, or Exemplary, rather evaluators will provide at least one strength and one weakness based on findings from the documentation review, authorizer debrief, and school survey. The advanced criteria feedback will not impact the overall rating provided to an authorizer.

Evaluation Team

Evaluation teams should be comprised of at least two individuals with relevant expertise, and without a current relationship with the authorizer that could be perceived as a conflict of interest. The evaluation team may divide the evaluation roles and tasks among its members as it sees fit. However, in order to ensure clear, consistent communication and reduce duplicative messaging, one member of the evaluation team shall serve as the lead for each authorizer evaluation and act as the main point of contact for the authorizer, local boards of education and related charter schools. The evaluation team leader will have the following responsibilities:

- Send the updated relevant documents table to the authorizer after the initial website pull has been conducted,
- Consolidate the evaluation team's school survey follow-up questions and send them to the school,
- Navigate any responses to the survey,
- Consolidate the evaluation team's authorizer debrief questions,
- Lead the authorizer debrief conversation, and
- Share the final version of the evaluation rubric with the authorizer.

The authorizer must also designate a single point of contact to verify accuracy of information used by the evaluation team.

Evaluation Process

The authorizer evaluation process includes five main components:

- 1. Orientation,
- 2. Authorizer & School Surveys,
- 3. Relevant Authorizing Documents,
- 4. Authorizer Debrief, and
- 5. Rubric Completion.

Each component is described in more detail and an accompanying timeline is provided, below. The final product of the evaluation is a completed rubric (one for each authorizer) that assesses a charter authorizer's performance against the 15 Georgia Standards for Quality Charter School Authorizing.

Orientation

The State Board of Education (SBOE) is required to provide for or approve training for its staff and local board of education members on the approved principles and standards.⁵ At least one member of each authorizing office must attend. While not required, supplemental learning materials that incorporate the Georgia context can be found in the Georgia Authorizer Training learning suite here. Although not required in law, the SCSC will host an orientation to the evaluation process for its staff and the evaluation team prior to the evaluation start date. SCSC staff will also communicate with schools about the evaluation, timeline, and related requests. This training will cover the evaluation process, the authorizer rating structure, timelines, and due dates. Orientation should be completed no later than the month before an evaluation cycle start date. Related documentation and timelines will also be shared with charter school leaders prior to the evaluation cycle start date.

School Surveys and Focus Groups

All approved (operational and pre-opening) charter schools will be asked complete an authorizer evaluation school survey. The survey questions align with standards and evaluation criteria included in the evaluation rubric. The survey is an opportunity for schools to explain their experiences with the authorizer and identify areas of strengths and weaknesses. Evaluators do not need to capture all comments or survey results in the evaluation rubric. However, evaluators should include results that highlight strengths or weaknesses, and comments that provide actionable insights for the authorizer. If additional information is needed for the evaluation team to rate the authorizer on all criteria, the evaluation team may send follow up questions and ask schools to submit documentation to support claims in the survey responses. This is particularly important when a school rates an authorizers' practice negatively but provides no rationale or documentation supporting the response. The evaluation team lead will request follow-up responses from respondents, as necessary. When follow up questions or additional documentation are used to determine ratings, evaluators should note that in the rubric. Instead of conducting direct survey follow up, evaluators may convene a school leader focus group to address questions raised by survey responses.

Relevant Authorizing Documents

Evaluators will gather as much of the required documentation as possible from the authorizer's website. Then, evaluators will request outstanding documents from the Relevant Documents Table. Whenever appropriate, the evaluation team will give the authorizer discretion to select which documents the authorizer believes most clearly demonstrate the authorizer's adherence to the relevant criteria or standard. The authorizer is required to submit all remaining documents or, if applicable, a link to where the document is publicly available. The evaluation team will make notes and add ratings to each authorizer's evaluation rubric based on their initial review of the collected documents. The evaluation team will compile follow-up questions to ask the authorizer, especially when submitted documentation is unclear, incomplete, inconsistent, or conflicts with school survey responses. The evaluation team lead will consolidate and send follow up questions to the authorizer prior to the scheduled authorizer debrief discussion.

Authorizer Debrief

The authorizer debrief is an opportunity for the authorizer to identify how the submitted documentation demonstrates adherence to Georgia's standards, as measured by the evaluation rubric. The debrief discussion allows the authorizer to verbally explain processes and protocols, and to respond to any concerns the team derived from relevant school survey responses.

The evaluation team lead will contact the authorizer at the beginning of the evaluation to schedule a debrief discussion. Debrief discussions should occur within the timeframe indicated in the timeline below. The evaluation team lead will consolidate all questions, comments, and potential questions or concerns arising from the document review and school surveys and will send this information to the authorizer well before the debrief discussion. Following the debrief discussion, each evaluation team member will update their rubric considering additional understanding gained and evidence gathered.

Rubric Completion

This evaluation process relies on expert evaluators using the provided rubric to clearly and uniformly provide a rating for each Georgia authorizer on the 15 Georgia Principles and Standards for Charter School Authorizing. During and after each stage of the evaluation process team members will make notes in the appropriate section of their individual GAE Rubric, identifying areas of misalignment between the standard quality practice as defined in the GAE rubric, the authorizer documentation, school feedback from survey responses and authorizer verbal commentary provided during the debrief. Once all authorizer debrief discussions have concluded, the evaluation team shall convene to discuss and review their individual assessments of authorizer performance. Individual team member rubrics will be used to draft a final comprehensive rubric for each authorizer at the end of the evaluation process. The evaluation team must come to a consensus for the overall rating for each authorizer as well as the rating for each standard for each authorizer. Authorizers will receive one completed evaluation rubric that incorporates the feedback from the evaluation team as a whole.

Timeline

The evaluation cycle is estimated to last up to 10 weeks. Specific duties for each party are outlined by week (and day if applicable) in the table below. The evaluation team may adjust timelines if needed; however, school and authorizer deadlines must not be shortened unless agreed to by all parties. The process is ideally situated to occur in the summer months when districts and schools are not in session. Annually the SBOE will share specific dates and times for the evaluation process during the orientation training for local districts and authorizers. Orientation shall occur in the month prior to the evaluation cycle.

Standard 7. Performance Standards. The authorizer, through the performance contract, establishes high academic, financial, and operational performance standards under which schools will be evaluated, using objective and verifiable measures of student achievement and growth as the primary measure of school quality.
