Report Card Overview

The Governor's Office of Student Achievement (GOSA) provides accountability for all of Georgia's education agencies from Pre-K through postsecondary levels. As part of this mission, GOSA presents its annual report on Georgia's public education agencies.

The Report Card includes data from the following:

- Department of Education
- Department of Early Care and Learning
- Technical College System of Georgia
- University System of Georgia
- Professional Standards Commission
- Georgia Student Finance Commission

The Report Card is published in December of each year, with the exception of 2011-12 due to data delays from the CCRPI.

Report Card Format Change in 2011-12

For 2011-12, GOSA shifted to a dynamic Report Card with the following advantages:

- Allows for live updates as data quality/accuracy improves
- Provides easier access to data tables that accompany graphs. Example.
- Improves functionality of reports

Still has some “growing pains:”

- Currently doesn't support Google Chrome and Internet Explorer 10. Should be fixed next week.
- Not optimized for mobile devices. Goal for this year.

Important Business Rules

- If the number tested in a subgroup is less than 10 students, then the cell and results report “Too Few Students” to protect student identity.
- If a student takes an assessment more than once within the same year, only the student’s highest score is counted.
- GOSA receives graduation rates, dropout rates, and personnel/fiscal data precalculated from the GaDOE.

Previous Report Cards

The Governor's Office of Student Achievement (GOSA) provides accountability for all of Georgia's education agencies from pre-kindergarten through postsecondary levels with the goal of improving student achievement and school completion in Georgia.

As part of this mission, GOSA presents its annual report on Georgia's public education agencies. GOSA hopes that the information contained in these reports and future reports will provide educators, parents, students, and all stakeholders with valuable information and challenge communities to improve education for all of Georgia's children.

What is currently published?

In December 2013, GOSA released the 2012-13 Report Card with trend data available for 2011-12.

- Pre-Kindergarten
- K-12 Public Schools

Downloadable data files back to 2006-07 are available.

Improvements expected in 2014

- Migrate 2010-11 Report Card into the new format and remove old Report Card website.
 - Going forward, three years of data will be kept in dynamic reports. Downloadable files will be available for older years.
- Publish USG and TCSG Report Cards (pending data receipt and validation from agencies)
- Add participation rates for assessments
- Upgrade to allow functionality for all web browsers
- Publish a school-level downloadable file for each indicator on the Report Card.
- Add additional indicators as needed based upon stakeholder feedback.

Differences between Report Card and CCRPI

Report Card

- All students included
- Snapshot of Pre-K through postsecondary performance, demographics, personnel/fiscal, and other indicators
- Driven by state/federal law
- More useful if looking for specific indicators

CCRPI

- FAY students only included
- Snapshot of K-12 performance
- Driven by ESEA waiver
- More useful if looking for overall summary of performance
