Starting Strong: Best Practices in Starting a Charter School

Peabody College Vanderbilt University

Commissioned by State Charter Schools Commission of Georgia Katie Manthey Academic Accountability Manager

Lauren Holcomb Director of Organizational and Resource Development

Background

Research Partners: SCSC and Peabody College at Vanderbilt University Purpose of Study: 1. to identify academic and operational practices commonly employed by high performing start-up charter schools, and 2. to share these best practices with petitioning groups, existing schools, and other external stakehólders.

Methodology

Three main sources of data:

Existing literature on best practices
 Interviews with charter support organizations
 Interviews with founders of successful charter schools in Georgia*, Tennessee, and Florida

Methodology

- Successful = Academically Successful
- Schools demonstrated positive student achievement gains
- Several state charter schools included among Georgia schools:
- Fulton Leadership Academy
 Ivy Preparatory Academy Gwinnett
 Pataula Charter Academy

Findings

- 11 domains of best practices that represent important aspects of operating a high-achieving charter school.
 - 1. MISSION
 - 2. GOVERNANCE
 - 3. LEADERSHIP and CULTURE
 - 4. ACADEMIC PROGRAM
 - 5. BUSINESS OPERATIONS
 - 6. RESOURCE ALLOCATION
 - 7. FACILITIES
 - 8. TALENT MANAGEMENT
 - 9. EXTERNAL RELATIONS
 - 10. ACCOUNTABILITY
 - 11. RECRUITMENT

1. Focus on the MISSION

- Every decision should lead back to fulfilling the mission
- Growing slowly helps to perfect the mission

Mission Statement

1. A Mission Statement Should:

- Be Specific
- Clearly define what will be accomplished
- How the school will meet the students' academic needs
- And, show what differentiates this school from others

2. Establish Effective GOVERNANCE

- Select board members who agree with the mission and have time to start a school.
- Select board members who can offer vital expertise and resources on all operational areas – and have the time.
- Clarify the board's role in governance and not management – of the school.

WHO DOES WHAT?

| Board's Responsibility | School Leader's Responsibility |
|----------------------------|--|
| Evaluate school and leader | Make curricular decisions |
| Approve budget | Hire staff |
| Create school policies | Manage day-to-day affairs of the school |
| Fundraise | Interact with parents |

3. Establish Effective LEADERSHIP AND CULTURE

- Skills for starting a charter school aren't learned in a book and there are many definitions of an effective leader.
- Leaders will be measured and judged by the work of those they hire; so hire well and treat employees well.

Leadership and Culture

3. Important LEADERSHIP SKILLS

- RESILIENCE
- FLEXIBILITY
- EXCELLENT COMMUNICATION SKILLS
- HUMILITY
- AMBITION
- ABILITY TO MOBILIZE GROUPS

4. Develop the ACADEMIC PROGRAM

- Academic programs should go hand in hand with the mission of a charter school.
- High expectations and rigorous materials help charters get off to a strong start.
- Balance purchasing existing programs and creating all materials in-house.

5. Managing BUSINESS OPERATIONS

- Effective business operations are vital and should be carefully planned
- Verification of finances requires multiple people.
- Utilize the board's expertise on operations and finance.
- Be strategic about contracting out services

Segregation of Duties

| Authorization &Approval | Processing & Recording | Making Payments | Receiving Funds | Review |
|------------------------------------|------------------------------|------------------|-------------------|--|
| Approving PO's | Recording Transactions | Cutting Checks | Depositing Cash | Annual Budget Review |
| Signing Checks | Reconciling Bank Accounts | Initiating Wires | Depositing Checks | Selection of Auditor |
| Approving Budgets | | | Receiving Cash | Review of Monthly Financial Statements |
| Approving Wires | | | | |
| Approving Recorded Transactions | | | | |

6. Acquiring and Allocating RESOURCES

- Federal and state grants can be worth the time investment.
- Community foundations, fundraisers and corporate sponsors are other ways to obtain resources.
- Maintain flexibility and a reserve fund.

7. Acquiring FACILITIES

- Location matters.
- Use board members, nonprofits and grants to search for and acquire facilities.
- Think outside the box.
- The first building doesn't have to be the permanent location.

Facilities

7. Which have charter schools used as a facility?

a) Church

- b) Strip mall
- c) Modular units
- d) Former car dealership
- e) College campuses
- f) All of the above

8. Managing TALENT

- Use the school's mission and vision to attract teachers.
- Compensation should be competitive with the district.
- Recruit from everywhere and think about alternative teaching programs.
- Expect staff turnover.
- Multi-talented people can fill multiple roles.

Managing Talent

- 8. Attracting Talented Teachers through Incentives
 - Offer Bonuses
 - Alternative Compensation Systems
 - Professional Development Opportunities

9. Managing EXTERNAL RELATIONS

- Be transparent and clear with parents at all times.
- When dealing with parents, schools are in the business of customer service.
- Emphasize local community partnerships.

10. Performance Monitoring and ACCOUNTABILITY

- Accountability to the charter authorizers and state testing set the bar externally.
- Use interim assessments to monitor progress internally.

Performance Monitoring & Accountability

10.SCSC Comprehensive Performance Framework

- Academic performance
 - Achievement and growth
- Financial viability
 - Near-term viability and long-term sustainability
- Operational compliance
 - Governance and legal compliance

http://scsc.georgia.gov/scsc-comprehensive-performance-framework

11. Recruiting STUDENTS

- Stay true to the mission
- Pound the pavement
- Take a stance on transportation

Conclusion

Starting Strong: Best Practices in Starting a Charter School

Available on the SCSC Website: https://scsc.georgia.gov/sites/scsc.georgia.gov/files/related_files/site_page/Starting_Strong_final.pdf